

EU climate policy and its implementation in the regions

Representation of Saxony-Anhalt to the EU, Boulevard Saint Michel 80, B-1040 Brussels

16 Nov 2016 start: 3.00 p.m.

- 3.00 p.m. André Schröder Welcoming address
Minister of Finance of the State of Saxony-Anhalt
- 3.15 p.m. Bernd Biervert, Deputy Head of Cabinet of Vice-President Maroš Šefcovic,
European Commission
State of play European climate policy and Energy Union, Follow-up Paris Agreement State of play on legislative proposals currently being prepared / revised subsequent to the Paris Agreement or as part of the Energy Union (e.g. Energy Efficiency Directive, Performance of Buildings Directive, Renewable Energy Directive)
- 3.35 p.m. Steffen Volk, Head of Unit,
Ministry of Finance of the State of Saxony-Anhalt
STARK III EFRE plus and ELER during funding period 2007-2013, continuation in the funding period 2014-2020
- 3.55 p.m. Dr. Georg Wagener-Lohse, Society for the Promotion of Renewable Energies FEE
Outlook funding period 2014-2020: key findings emerging from funding period 2007-2013, selection and evaluation criteria / indicators, building a bridge towards the European climate targets.
- 4.15 p.m. Q&A session
- 4.25 p.m. Pause
- 5.00. p.m. Univ. Prof. Arch. DI Dr. Martin Treberspurg, University of Natural Resources and Life
Sciences (BOKU), Vienna
Energy efficiency in the building sector – Impacts of European Climate Policy on regional implementation in Austria
- 5.30 p.m. Q&A session
- 5.40 p.m. Panel discussion

Sven Schulze, MEP, André Schröder, Claus Kondrup, DG Clima, Prof. Martin Treberspurg, Dr. Klaus Nutzenberger, Head of the European Office of the German Association of Towns and Municipalities
What role do cities and regions play in the implementation process of the Paris agreement?

Moderation: Dr. Georg Wagener-Lohse

Afterwards reception

Please register by sending an e-mail to: sekretariat@lv-bruessel.stk.sachsen-anhalt.de

The event will be simultaneously translated (DE-EN, EN-DE)