The European Federation of Agencies and Regions for Energy and Environment (FEDARENE), the leading European network of actors in sustainable energy policy at regional level, offers in its Brussels office:

6-month internship as EU Communication assistant

Only students able to provide a traineeship agreement from a university will be selected.

We offer: a work experience coupled with responsibility and networking opportunities within a well-established European association (30 years), representing members from over 20 European countries and active in one of the most strategic areas of the current European political activity.

MAIN MISSIONS

1. Manage the bimonthly FEDARENE newsletter, actively moderate the Website and other communication channels, including social networks.
2. Support the communication missions related to FEDARENE's European projects
3. Assist in drafting the new content and editorial strategy.
4. Support in other activities: general data base management, events organisation...

REQUIRED PROFILE:

- Student in Communication / Journalism / Political Sciences
- Excellent spoken & written English (C1) and good knowledge of French (B2)
- Autonomous, creative, proactive
- Good knowledge of Microsoft Office
- Perfect command of Twitter and LinkedIn
- Knowledge of Adobe Suite and WordPress is an asset

Interested?
Send your resume and cover letter to Ms. Mélissa Miklos at fedarene@fedarene.org